Mr. David Shover*Middle School Chorus Conductor

After graduating from Messiah College in 1985 with a degree in Music Education, Mr. Shover accepted a teaching position in the Camp Hill Schools. Over the next 29 years, he built an award-winning vocal music program in the Camp Hill Middle/High School leading all vocal music activities in grades 6-12. Ensembles included the Camp Hill Middle School Chorus, High School Chorus, Middle and High School Chamber Ensembles, and the renown Camp Hill Vocal Jazz Ensemble. During his tenure in Camp Hill, he directed over 25 spring musicals, several of which won Hershey Apollo Awards for Outstanding Musical and Outstanding Individual Performers. Even though Camp Hill is a relatively small school district, a large percentage of graduates went on to major in music education and/or theatrical performance. In 1991, he received his first Masters Degree in Education from Wilkes University and in 2010 earned a second Masters Degree in Educational Leadership from Edinboro University. From 2010-2014, he served as the director of the American Music Abroad Choir and Vocal Jazz Ensemble touring France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy, and the Czech Republic. Mr. Shover has served several times as a guest conductor of PMEA District and County Festivals in Lycoming, Perry, Cumberland, and Dauphin Counties. In 2000, he was privileged to serve as the guest conductor for the Dauphin County High School Chorus. In 2009 he was guest conductor of the Dauphin County Elementary Chorus, and now this year the Dauphin County Middle School Chorus - a goal he's had for many years - to complete the "trilogy" of Dauphin County. There is a wealth of musical talent in the schools in Dauphin County and he wants to thank the directors for allowing him the opportunity to work with these wonderful students. In addition to teaching, Mr. Shover has also served as worship leader at several local churches in Cumberland and Dauphin counties. He has become an accomplished composer, arranger, singer, and pianist. In 2014, he left teaching music to accept the position of High School Principal in the Millersburg Area School District. While he misses working with music students every day, he is working hard at the administrative level to preserve music education in our schools. He still serves as pianist for local musical performances, and teaches private piano lessons at the Grace M. Pollock Performing Arts Center in Camp Hill.

Dr. Brent TalbotElementary School Chorus Conductor

Brent C. Talbot, Ph.D. is coordinator of music education at the Sunderman Conservatory of Music at Gettysburg College where he teaches various courses in music education and supervises student teaching and research. Dr. Talbot is artistic director of the Gettysburg Children's Choir and founding director of Gamelan Gita Semara. Prior to his appointments in Gettysburg, he served on the faculty at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Talbot has taught middle and high school music in the Rochester (NY) City and Webster (NY) public school districts and was former Coordinator of Music at Poly Prep Country Day School in Brooklyn, New York. He holds degrees in music education from the Eastman School of Music (Ph.D. & M.A.) and Indiana University (B.M.E.). In addition, he earned a diploma in ethnomusicology and is certified in all three levels of Orff-Schulwerk. Dr. Talbot was the founding director of the Eastman Young Children's Chorus and Director of the Eastman New Horizons Choir.

Middle School Students

He is an active clinician at many county and district honor choirs and has directed groups at the Interlochen Center for the Arts and the Chautauqua Institution. A frequent presenter at regional, national, and international conferences, his areas of expertise include: world and popular music pedagogies, teaching movement, and examining power and social justice in music learning settings. Dr. Talbot is published in various state, national, and international journals as well as in books on music education and music therapy. Dr. Talbot is an active member of American Choral Directors Association and serves in leadership roles within the National Association for Music Education, the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association and the MayDay Group. For more information go to Dr. Talbot's website www.brentctalbot.com<<http://www.brentctalbot.com>>.

Dr. Rachel Cornacchio

High School Chorus Conductor

Dr. Rachel Cornacchio is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Music Education at Messiah College. As a public school educator, she has taught in New York, New Jersey, and Florida in grades K-12. Dr. Cornacchio served as an elementary general music specialist in Peekskill, NY and Director of Choral Activities at Newburgh Free Academy in Newburgh, NY. While in Newburgh, choirs and soloists under Dr. Cornacchio's direction received top honors at solo and ensemble festivals. Community organizations with which she has worked include the Newburgh Symphonic Chorale and the Oregon Young Women's Choir. Before coming to Messiah College, Dr. Cornacchio acted as Visiting Instructor at the University of Oregon where she directed the University Concert Choir and taught courses in Choral Music Education.

Dr. Cornacchio has presented papers at the regional, national, and international levels. Research interests include Conductor Expressivity, Adolescent Voices, and Making Music with Children ages 0-5.

Her professional affiliations include the Music Educators National Conference, Pennsylvania Music Educators Association, American Choral Directors Association, and Pi Kappa Lambda. She currently serves as Repertoire & Standards Chair for Women's Choirs for the American Choral Directors Association – PA. Dr. Cornacchio is active as a certified Music Together instructor, an early childhood music program.

Dr. Cornacchio is active as a guest conductor and clinician.
